

Houston Firefighters' Relief and Retirement Fund Board of Trustees

Arif Rasheed

City Treasurer Designee

Arif Rasheed is currently the Deputy Director overseeing the Financial Reporting and Operations Division in the Finance Department at City of Houston, Texas. He has over 35 years of accounting and financial reporting, external/internal audit, and grants management experience. His experience includes teaching accounting and auditing courses to undergraduate students as an adjunct professor at Davenport University, Michigan.

Mr. Rasheed has an extensive background planning and performing operational, financial and compliance audits both in external and internal auditor capacities. He has broad knowledge of Sarbanes-Oxley compliance requirements.

He holds a Masters in Accounting and Management Information System from Bowling Green State University in Ohio.